The Epsom Derby

The most famous race in the world, the Epsom Derby (sponsored by Investec), over the unique mile and a half at Epsom, is run on Saturday. The source of so many imitations all around the world, it is still the centrepiece of the racing world, the one everyone involved in the sport wants to win...

Royal Ascot

There is no more glamorous sporting occasion than Royal Ascot, as famous for its hats as its racing, but for the aficionado, there is no week in racing worldwide that sustains quality sport for so long, race after race...

BBM INVITES FRENCH BREEDERS TO NEWMARKET

Trade between UK and France, in relation to their respective Racing and Breeding industries, continues to grow apace, and with this in mind, BBM have invited thirty prominent French Thoroughbred breeders to be their guests on a three day visit to Newmarket (June 8-10 )

Horses In Training/NH Stores

Though most attention in Britain, Europe and in Australasia indeed to a considerable degree, is focused on the two great Derby and Royal Ascot meetings, racing carries on round the globe and Marju's son Viva Pataca (GB) has been the horse of a lifetime for his owners in Hong Kong and won his third Gr.1 Champions and Chater Cup in Hong Kong at the weekend... ## National Hunt Review

Racing over obstacles obviously takes a back seat at this time of year, after a vintage season by any standards, though summer jumping has grown in stature and a day or evening at a fixture is a highly enjoyable way to pass the time, but the final list for this past season of earnings for stallions shows how well in percentage terms, as well as quality, British based National Hunt sires can do... ### BREEZE-UP BONUS SCHEME

A total of 12 WINNERS have won Breeze-up Bonus prizes - a combined total of £125,000 with £375,000 of the prize pool still remaining.

Purchased from the DBS Breeze-up sale for £21,000 one of the latest winners was Rose Blossom (GB) who won the Maiden Auction Stakes at Haydock on 29 May - the Pastoral Pursuits filly was the only debutant in the race, was sent off 2/1 favorite and broke the all-age track record which has stood since 1972! Trainer Richard Fahey thinks very highly of her and has her place booked for the Queen Mary at Royal Ascot. VIEW MORE WINNERS >>

TBA SEMINAR

British Breeding - Now and In The Future

This year's TBA Annual Seminar is being held on Tuesday 30 June at Tattersalls to support breeders and help them to manage their businesses during the economic downturn. Guest speakers include Bill Oppenheim and Grant Pritchard-Gordon and an expert panel includes Tony Morris, David Redvers, Henry Beeby and Martin Mitchell CLICK HERE TO READ MORE OR BOOK A PLACE >> the aspiring three year old middle distance champion, at Epsom, famous worldwide for its inclines and undulations, and the fun of the fair. To be followed, two weeks later, by the pomp, pageantry, and proliferation of high class racing at Royal Ascot.

The 2008 – 2009 Jump season witnessed some vintage racing, and it is heartening to note how well our British National Hunt stallions performed in ‘winners to runners’ percentage terms.

12 graduates of this year’s Breeze-up sales have now won and thus qualified for the Breeze-up Bonus, thereby advertising the merit of the Scheme. A fine example of Industry self help in difficult times.

30 prominent French breeders will be guests of BBM in Newmarket (June 8- 10) - their busy itinerary including visits to Lanwades Stud, Shadwell Stud, Darley’s Dalham Hall Stud, Cheveley Park Stud, Juddmonte’s Banstead Manor Stud, and the National Stud.

The rebranding exercise carried out recently by consultants Harrison Fraser for Racing Enterprises Ltd has come under close scrutiny – but BBM are happy to let the horses do the talking – especially when they are British bred!

All the best,
Gavin Pritchard-Gordon
